CIVIL ACTION NO. 2007-cv-63-wkw

PLAINTIFFS REPLY TO DEFENDENTS

RESPONSES AND REPLIES

COME NOW, Plaintiff in above styled cause, and submit this reply to the Defendants responses and replies to the Court.

1. Section 1983 suits do not require exhaustion of state remedies. Therefore, prisoners are not required to apply for relief to administrators nor to the state courts before serving in federal court of civil rights.

2. Plaintiff sent numerous requests to both Sheriff Harris and Capt. McKee concerning his hand.

3. Both Sheriff Harris and Capt. McKee had a meeting to have the Plaintiff's hand looked at by a doctor. SO how could the Defendant's not have received any requests or grievances from the Plaintiff.

4. As the Defendants said in their response ,Defendants are not required to - and should not - second guess the judgment of medical doctor or dentist. So why did they not send the Plaintiff to the special the Doctor at the Stabler Clinic referred the Plaintiff to.

5. THE Defendants' statements are false, and they should not be entitled to a summary judgment in their favor.

Respectfully submitted on 3rd Aug, 2007

I swear(or affirm) under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
